

1. Sentence Fragment: “After lunch”

Context: “What time do you want to meet them? After lunch.”

The fragment “After lunch” expresses the specific time for the meeting, and the context of the question provides the clarity needed for understanding.

2. Sentence Fragment: “After the storm”

Context: “The building structures were damaged. After the storm.”

The statement fragment “After the storm” indicates a clear idea of how the building structures were damaged after the storm. It gives the statement a clear effect and also makes it understandable.

The Essential Context

Dr. Nancy Myle Baffour Gyamfi